THE MISSISSIPPI TROUBLES. TELEGRAMS BETWEEN GOVERNOR AMES

AND THE PRESIDENT. CALL FOR FEDERAL INTERFERENCE

Washington, September 8 .- The followng dispatch was received at the Executive mansion last night from Governor Ames, of Mississippi:

Jackson, Miss., September 7, 1875.—To His Excellency U. S. Grant, President, Washington, D. C.: Sir,—Domestic violence in its most aggravated form exists in certain parts of this State. On the evening of the 1st instant unauthorized and illegal armed bodies overthrew the civil authorities of Yazoo county and took forcible possession of said county, from which the sheriff, the perce-officer of the county, was compelled to flee for safety, and is still a refugee. The sheriff of this (Hinds) county reports that since the 4th instant he has been unable, after every effort, to maintain the peace and protect the right. He reports various murders by unauthorized armed bodies who are scouring the country. Warren county is also reported as being in a state of terrorism from the demonstrations of still other unauthorized armed bodies, and a feeling of nsecurity pervades in other counties of the State. After careful examination of all re ports I find myself compelled to appeal the General Government for the means of giving that protection to which every American citizen is entitled. I do not now make formal application under the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, but telegraph you to know if you can and will regard the proclamation issued by you in December last, on the application of the Legislature of this State, as still in force. The necessity of immediate action cannot be over-stated. If your proclamation of December last is not in force I will at once make a formal application in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the ADELBERT AMES. United States. Mr. Luckey, private secretary to the Presi dent, immediately sent the above dispatch to the President at Long Branch, and a reply was received directing him to submit the dispatch to the Attorney-General, ask for his advice, and answer Governor Ames as to whether the proclamation of last year could be construed as now in force.

The telegrams were banded to the Attorney-General last night, and this morning that officer submitted to the President his decision: that the proclamation of December last cannot be construed as now in force. This opinion was communicated to Governor Ames, as directed by the President, in the following dispatch: Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C September 8, 10:30 A. M.- Governor Adelbert Ames, Jackson, Miss: The President submitted your dispatch of yesterday, asking if the proclamation of December last is till in force, to the Attorney-General, who decides that it is not in force. I notify you of his decision. By direction of the Presi-LEVI P. LUCKEY, Secretary.

[Second Dispatch.] GOVERNOR AMES APPLIES FOR FEDERAL AID. WASHINGTON, September 8 .- The followwarded to the President, at Long Branch, by Mr. Luckey, his private secretary : "Jackson, Miss., September 8, 1875, 5:30 P. M .- To President U. S. Grant, Washington, D. C .: Domestic violence prevails in various parts of this State beyond the power of State authorities to suppress. The Legislature cannot be convened in time to meet the emergency. I therefore, in accordance with section 4 of article 4 of the Constitution of the United States- which provides that the United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on application of the Legislature, or of the Executive when platform. The resolutions set forththe Legislature cannot be convened, against domestic violence—make this my application for such aid from the Federal Government as may be necessary to restore peace to the State and protect its citizens. " ADELBERT AMES, GOVERNOY."

[Third Dispatch.] [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, September 8 .- The absorbing topic in official circles, and even in political quarters here now, is the Mississippi by those only who are in sympathy with troubles.
